In the event of a conflict between the pre-printed terms provided in any Order and the terms of this Contract, the terms of this Contract shall prevail. All inconsistent or additional terms or conditions in any Supplier acknowledgement, packaging, invoice or other sales forms are expressly objected to and rejected by the Customer and shall not be applicable to any Orders issued under this Contract.

2. BASIS OF CONTRACT

2.1 These Conditions apply to the Contract to the exclusion of any other terms that Supplier seeks to impose or incorporate, or which are implied by trade, custom, practice or course of dealing.

- 2.2 The Order constitutes an offer by the Customer to purchase the Goods in accordance with these Conditions.
- 2.3 The Order shall be deemed to be accepted on the earlier of:
- (a) the Supplier issuing a written acceptance of the Order; and
 - (b) the Supplier doing any act consistent with fulfilling the Order, at which point the Contract shall come into existence.
- 2.4 The Customer shall have the right, at any time, to make changes by submitting a change order regarding the quantity, Delivery Location (as defined below) and/or delivery date of the Goods that are subject to this Contractor or any Order. To the extent reasonably feasible, the Supplier shall comply with all such changes. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no changes shall be made except upon a written change order issued from the Customer to the Supplier and, if the change affects the Supplier's cost or time of performance, an equitable adjustment as provided for in the change order shall be made and the Order shall be deemed modified accordingly.

3. GOODS

- 3.1 The Supplier shall ensure that the Goods shall:
- (a) correspond with their description and any applicable Specification;
 - (b) be of satisfactory quality (within the meaning of the Sale of Goods Act 1979, as amended) and fit for any purpose held out by the Supplier or made known to the Supplier by the Customer expressly or by implication, and in this respect the Customer relies on the skill and judgement of the Supplier;
 - (c) where applicable, be free from defects in design, material and workmanship and remain so for 12 months after delivery;
 - (d) comply with all applicable statutory and regulatory requirements relating to the manufacture, labelling, packaging, storage, handling and delivery of the Goods;
 - (e) be manufactured at a location which has been approved by the Customer in writing. The Supplier shall not change the location at which the Goods are manufactured without obtaining the prior written consent of the Customer, and any such change without Customer's prior written consent shall be deemed a material breach of this Contract.
- 3.2 The Supplier shall ensure that at all times it has and maintains all the licences, permissions, authorisations, consents and permits that it needs to carry out its obligations under the Contract.
- 3.3 The Customer shall have the right to inspect and test the Goods at any time before delivery. The Customer shall have the right to appoint such persons as it considers necessary or desirable to inspect the Goods for which the Supplier must grant proper and reasonable facilities for such inspection to such persons and the Supplier shall, at the request of the Customer, provide the Customer with copies of test reports or data disclosed as a result of any inspection carried out by the Customer or his nominee.
- 3.4 The costs of any inspection tests shall be borne by the Supplier other than the salaries, travelling expenses and subsistence of relevant personnel employed by the Customer and unless otherwise specified in the Order.
- 3.5 The items to be tested and tests other than of a routine nature shall be specified in the Order. It shall be the Supplier's responsibility to inform the Customer if the Supplier does not have adequate facilities for carrying out the tests required by the Customer and it shall be the Supplier's responsibility and at its own cost to make the necessary arrangements for the testing of the Goods concerned either at the site or elsewhere convenient to both the Customer and Supplier.

- 3.6 If following such inspection or testing the Customer considers that the Goods do not conform or are unlikely to comply with the undertakings of the Supplier at clause 3.1, the Customer shall inform the Supplier and the Supplier shall immediately take such remedial action as is necessary to ensure compliance.
- 3.7 Notwithstanding any such inspection or testing, the Supplier shall remain fully responsible for the Goods and any such inspection or testing shall not reduce or otherwise affect the obligations of the Supplier under the Contract, and the Customer shall have the right to conduct further inspections and tests after the Supplier has carried out its remedial actions.

4. DELIVERY

- 4.1 The Supplier shall ensure that:
- (a) the Goods are properly packed and secured in such manner as to enable them to reach their destination in good condition;
 - (b) each delivery of the Goods is accompanied by a delivery note which shows: the date of the Order, the Order number (if any), the type and quantity of the Goods (including the code number of the Goods, where applicable), special storage instructions (if any), any labelling requirements (such as barcoding) specified in the Order and, if the Goods are being delivered by instalments, the outstanding balance of Goods remaining to be delivered;
 - (c) if the Supplier requires the Customer to return any packaging material to the Supplier, that fact is clearly stated on the delivery note. Any such packaging material shall be returned to the Supplier at the cost of the Supplier.
- 4.2 Unless delayed by Force Majeure, time for delivery shall be of the essence. The Supplier shall deliver the Goods:
- (a) on the date specified in the Order, or, if no such date is specified, within 28 days of the date of the Order;
 - (b) to such location as is set out in the Order, or as instructed by the Customer prior to delivery (Delivery Location); and
 - (c) during the normal business hours of the Customer, or as instructed by the Customer.
- 4.3 Delivery of the Goods shall be completed on the completion of unloading the Goods at the Delivery Location.
- 4.4 If the Supplier:
- (a) delivers less than 95% of the quantity of Goods ordered, the Customer may reject the Goods; or
 - (b) delivers more than 105% of the quantity of Goods ordered, the Customer may at its discretion reject the Goods or the excess Goods,
- and any rejected Goods shall be returnable at the risk and expense of the Supplier. If the Supplier delivers more or less than the quantity of Goods ordered, and the Customer accepts the delivery, a pro rata adjustment shall be made to the invoice for the Goods.
- 4.5 The Supplier shall not deliver the Goods in instalments without the prior written consent of the Customer. Where it is agreed that the Goods are to be delivered by instalments, they may be invoiced and paid for separately. However, failure by the Supplier to deliver any one instalment on time or at all or any defect in an instalment shall entitle the Customer to the remedies set out in clause 5.

5. REMEDIES

5.1 If the Goods are not delivered on the date they are due as referred to in clause 4.2(a), or do not comply with the undertakings set out in clause 3.1, then, without limiting any of its other rights or remedies, the Customer shall have the right to any one or more of the following remedies, whether or not it has accepted the Goods:

- (a) to terminate the Contract;
- (b) to reject the Goods (in whole or in part) and return them to the Supplier at the own risk and expense of the Supplier;
- (c) to require the Supplier to repair or replace the rejected Goods, or to provide a full refund of the price of the rejected Goods (if paid);
- (d) to refuse to accept any subsequent delivery of the Goods which the Supplier attempts to make;
- (e) to recover from the Supplier any costs incurred by the Customer in obtaining substitute goods from a third party; and
- (f) to claim damages for any other costs, loss or expenses incurred by the Customer which are in any way attributable to the failure of the Supplier to carry out its obligations under the Contract, including third party claims.

5.2 If the Goods are not delivered on the due date the Customer may at its option claim or deduct up to 5% of the price of the Goods for each week's delay in delivery by way of liquidated damages, up to a maximum of 50% of the total price of the Goods. The Parties agree that this sum is not a penalty but a reasonably limited substitute for actual damages which the Customer would be entitled to in the event of late delivery but which would be difficult to calculate with accuracy or certainty. If the Customer exercises its rights under this clause 5.2, it shall not be entitled to any of the remedies set out in clause 5.1 in respect of the late delivery of the Goods (but such remedies shall be available in respect of the condition of the Goods).

5.3 These Conditions shall apply to any repaired or replacement Goods supplied by the Supplier.

5.4 The Supplier shall keep the Customer indemnified in full against all costs, expenses, damages and losses (whether direct or indirect), including any interest, penalties, and legal and other professional fees and expenses awarded against or incurred or paid by the Customer as a result of or in connection with:

- (a) any claim made against the Customer for actual or alleged infringement of a third party's intellectual property rights arising out of, or in connection with, the supply or use of the Goods, to the extent that the claim is attributable to the acts or omissions of the Supplier, its employees, agents or subcontractors;
- (b) any claim made against the Customer by a third party arising out of, or in connection with, the supply of the Goods, to the extent that such claim arises out of the breach, negligent performance or failure or delay in performance of the Contract by the Supplier, its employees, agents or subcontractors; and
- (c) any claim made against the Customer by a third party for death, personal injury or damage to property arising out of, or in connection with, defects in Goods, to the extent that the defect in the Goods is attributable to the acts or omissions of the Supplier, its employees, agents or subcontractors.

This clause 5.4 shall survive termination of the Contract.

- 5.5 The rights and remedies of the Customer under these Conditions are in addition to its rights and remedies implied by statute and common law.

6. EXPEDITING/PROGRESS

- 6.1 In addition to and without prejudice to any other right that the Customer may have hereunder, the Customer shall have the right to expedite the Goods (as herein defined).

- (d) to determine whether the bills of material have been issued;
- (e) to check whether component material is stock material and if so check its allocation;
- (f) to determine whether component material or any part of it is to be ordered from sub-suppliers, obtain the list of sub-orders, the sub-suppliers addresses, reference numbers and delivery schedules and to expedite these sub-suppliers if deemed necessary;
- (g) to determine that sub-orders for critical materials have been placed far enough in advance to avoid fabrication delays and if castings are involved to obtain full information about the patterns;
- (h) to check that sub-orders contain complete instructions about requested inspection requirements;
- (i) to indicate reasons for claiming reimbursement of additional costs through failure of the Supplier to fulfil its responsibility hereunder.

- 8.3 The Customer shall, on receipt of a valid VAT invoice from the Supplier, pay to the Supplier such additional amounts in respect of VAT as are chargeable on the supply of the Goods.
- 8.4 The Supplier may invoice the Customer for the Goods on or at any time after the completion of delivery.
- 8.5 The Customer shall pay correctly rendered invoices within time specified in the Order, or if there is no time specified, 60 days of receipt of the invoice. Payment shall be made to the bank account nominated in writing by the Supplier.

The Supplier shall maintain all such materials in good order and condition subject, in the case of Customer Materials (to the extent applicable), to fair wear and tear.
