3. Purchase Orders and Specification

3.1 The Customer will provide Rotork with all information reasonably required by Rotork in connection with the Products or Services or their intended application.

3.2 Rotork reserves the right to amend the Specification of the Products to ensure their continued compliance with law. Rotork will notify the Customer of any amendments made.

4. Delivery

4.1 Rotork will deliver the Products to the Customer on a ‘FCA’ basis (Incoterms 2010) to the location specified in the Contract or such other address as agreed by the Parties in writing or, if no such location or address is agreed, the Rotork facility where the Products are finally assembled (the “Delivery Location”). The Products will be delivered on the Scheduled Delivery Date for such Products or earlier if agreed by the Parties.

4.2 Delivery of a Product will be completed when Rotork places the Product at the Customer’s disposal at the Delivery Location.

4.3 If Rotork is either unable to fulfil any delivery of the Products by their Scheduled Delivery Date or perform the Services by the agreed date, then after a grace period of ten Business Days, the Customer may (except to the extent to which the failure results, either directly or indirectly, from any act or omission of the Customer or a Force Majeure Event) claim the following as liquidated damages from Rotork:

- (a) such rate (expressed as a percentage of the price of the Product or Service delayed and to apply in respect of any delay after the end of the grace period) and for such a maximum period as is agreed between the Parties and stated in the Contract; or
- (b) where no such rate has been expressly agreed, a rate of 0.5% of the price of the Product or Service delayed for each week of delay after the end of the grace period, up to the maximum of 5%.

4.4 Any claim by the Customer for liquidated damages is conditional on the Customer submitting such a claim to Rotork in writing within 30 days from the delivery of the delayed Product or Service or, if applicable, the date on which the Customer exercises its right of termination under clause 10.2.

4.5 The Customer’s right to claim the amounts set out in clause 4.3 are, in addition to the Customer’s right to terminate in accordance with clause 10.1 or 10.2, the Customer’s sole remedy and Rotork’s sole liability for the delay in the delivery of Products or Services.

4.6 Where Rotork is providing Services, the Customer will provide Rotork with access to its facilities as necessary to allow Rotork to perform the Services in a timely manner.

5. Price and Payment

5.1 The price of the Products and Services will be as set out or referenced in the Acknowledgement, or failing that, in the Purchase Order. If no price is set out in such documents, the price will be the price set out in Rotork’s published price list as at the date of Delivery.

5.2 Rotork will be entitled to submit invoices for any Product on or after its Delivery and for any Service on or after its performance. All invoices must be paid in full by the Customer in cleared funds within 30 Business Days of the date of the invoice. Payment will be made to the bank account nominated in writing by Rotork.

5.3 If the Customer fails to make any payment due to Rotork under the Contract by the due date for payment, then the Customer will pay interest (both before and after judgment) on the overdue amount at a rate of 4% per annum above the European Central Bank’s base rate from time to time. Such interest will accrue on a daily basis from the due date until actual payment of the overdue amount. The Customer will pay the interest together with the overdue amount.

5.4 Unless otherwise required by law, all payments made by the Customer under the Contract will be made without (and free and clear of any deduction for) set-off, counterclaim abatement or withholding.

- 5.5 The Customer will make all payments without any Tax Deduction, unless law requires a Tax Deduction to be made. If a Tax Deduction is required by law to be made by the Customer:
- (a) the amount of the payment due to Rotork will be increased to an amount which (after making the Tax Deduction) leaves an amount paid free and clear of tax equal to the payment which would have been due if no Tax Deduction had been required;
 - (b) the Customer will make the minimum Tax Deduction allowed by law, and will make any payment required in connection with it within the time allowed; and
 - (c) the Customer will, if available, deliver to Rotork an official receipt or other evidence satisfactory to Rotork (acting reasonably) that the Tax Deduction has been made or, as applicable, any appropriate payment has been paid to the relevant taxing authority.
- 5.6 Unless expressly stated otherwise in the Contract, any amount payable by the Customer pursuant to the Contract is exclusive of any value added tax, use tax, goods or services tax, sales or turnover tax or any other tax of a similar nature. The Customer will, on receipt of a valid invoice from Rotork, pay to Rotork such additional amounts in respect of such taxes as are chargeable on the supply or products and services.

6. Title, Risk and Acceptance

- 6.1 Title to, and all risk of loss or destruction of, or damage to, a Product passes from Rotork to the Customer on Delivery.

7. Warranties and Defective Goods

- 7.1 All Products sold by Rotork to the Customer pursuant to the Contract will, on Delivery:
- (a) conform in all material respects with the Specification, provided that in respect of any Product performance characteristics or parameters set out in the Specification, in the absence of any express provisions in the Specification to the contrary, such Product is only warranted to perform in accordance with those performance characteristics or parameters in those environmental conditions (including pressure, humidity or temperature) existing in Rotork's relevant facility responsible for assembling the finished Product;
 - (b) be free from material defects in material and workmanship; and
 - (c) subject to the Customer's compliance with clause 3.1, will be fit for any specific purpose expressly set out in the Acknowledgement or Purchase Order as being the purpose for which the Products will be used.
- This clause 7.1 does not constitute a guarantee with the meaning of s276, paragraph 1 of the German Civil Code.
- 7.2 If any Products are shown to be Defective before the end of a period of 18 months from Delivery or 12 months from commissioning, whichever is sooner (the "Warranty Period") then Rotork will:
- (a) subject to clause 7.9, at Rotork's sole discretion, exchange or repair the Defective Product within a reasonable period of time (taking into account the Customer's business priorities) and at no charge; or if Rotork are unable to do this,
 - (b) credit the Customer in respect of the original purchase price of the Defective Product.
- 7.3 Where any Product is replaced in accordance with clause 7.2 or 7.7, the unexpired balance of the Warranty Period applicable to the Product will apply to the replacement Product.
- 7.4 Rotork will not be liable for a Product's failure to comply with the warranty set out in clause 7.1 in any of the following events:
- (a) the Defect arises as a result of Rotork following any drawing, design or specification supplied by the Customer;
 - (b) the Customer alters such Products without the written consent of Rotork; or
 - (c) the Defect arises as a result of fair wear and tear, wilful damage, negligence or any failure by anyone but an affiliate of Rotork to follow the Product's technical documentation (including any instructions or procedures for installation, commissioning, operation or maintenance).
- 7.5 The Customer's remedy under clause 7.2 is conditional on the Customer notifying Rotork of the Defect during the relevant Warranty Period. Failure to do so will invalidate the relevant warranty claim.
- 7.6 Rotork warrants to the Customer that, where Rotork is providing the Customer with Services under the Contract, such Services will be performed with reasonable care and skill.
- 7.7 If Rotork breaches clause 7.6, then Rotork will:
- (a) re-perform the relevant Services or, if it is not practicable to re-perform such Services, refund the Customer the amounts paid by the Customer in respect of such Services; and
 - (b) subject to clause 7.9, repair or replace, on a free of charge basis, any Products damaged as a result of Rotork's breach of clause 7.6.

- (a) 180 days of the Service in breach being performed; or
 - (b) 14 days of the date the Customer discovered, or should reasonably have discovered, the breach.
- 7.9 It will be the Customer's responsibility to remove and then deliver the Products subject to any claim under sub-clause 7.2(a) or 7.7(b) to the Delivery Location on a DDP basis (Incoterms 2010). Rotork will then deliver any repaired or replaced Products to the Delivery Location on an FCA basis (Incoterms 2010). Provided that:
- (a) the Customer's claim under sub-clause 7.2(a) or 7.7(b) is valid; and
 - (b) the Customer has consulted with Rotork in advance of incurring such expenses (allowing Rotork to waive the requirement for the Products to be returned and/or send personnel to assess and potentially remedy any issue in situ) and such expenses are not significantly above the average costs for transporting similar goods (as part of a consignment of other goods) a similar distance by paved highway or rail in the relevant country,

Rotork will reimburse the Customer for any reasonable road or rail transportation expenses the Customer incurs in transporting the Products subject to the claim to and from the Customer's site where such Products are operating.

- 7.10 If Rotork determines that any claim made in respect of the warranties in this clause 7 is invalid, Rotork will stop all work in respect of such a claim and provide the Customer with a statement of costs for the work already performed (including any assessment work) and a quote for the work to be performed. If the Customer does not accept the quote it will, in any case, promptly reimburse Rotork for the costs Rotork has incurred for work already performed in respect of such a claim.
- 7.11 Subject to clause 7.1(c), the Customer acknowledges that it is solely responsible for choosing which Products and/or Services to purchase and warrants and represents that it both has requested and obtained all the information it needs and has analysed such information appropriately, in making the decision as to what Product and/or Service to purchase.

8. Limitation of Liability

- 8.1 In the event that Rotork is prevented from performing any obligation under this Contract because doing so would cause it to violate Trade Control Laws, Rotork shall have no liability to the Customer.
- 8.2 Subject to clause 8.6, Rotork's total liability (if any) to the Customer, whether such liability arises under the contract (including under any indemnity), negligence, breach of statutory duty or anything else, will be limited as follows:
- (a) in respect of:
- (i) a delay in the Delivery or performance of, or non-Delivery or performance of, Products or Services: to those remedies set out in clause 4 and the Customer's right to terminate, as set out in clause 10.1(c) and 10.2; and
- (ii) claims for infringement of Third Party IPR: to those remedies set out in clause 11; and
- (b) in respect of all other matters arising under or in connection with the Contract: to either:
- (i) the amount; or
- (ii) the percentage of the total price of the Products to be supplied and the Services to be performed under the Contract,
- as such amount or percentage ("Liability Cap") is agreed by the Parties and stated in the Acknowledgement (or, if not stated in the Acknowledgement, in the Purchase Order).
- 8.3 If neither the Acknowledgment nor the Purchase Order contain a Liability Cap, the Liability Cap shall be 100% the percentage of the total price of the Products to be supplied and the Services to be performed under the Contract.
- 8.4 Subject to clause 8.6, Rotork shall under no circumstances be liable for any damages regardless of their legal grounds, if
- (a) Rotork (or any person Rotork is responsible for, including legal representatives and vicarious agents) have caused such damage due to ordinary negligence; and
- (b) such damage does not result from a breach of an Essential Contractual Obligation by Rotork.
- 8.5 Subject to clause 8.6, if Rotork has breached an Essential Contractual Obligation, Rotork's liability shall not exceed the amount of the customary and foreseeable damages. This clause 8.5 is subject to Clause 8.2.
- 8.6 Nothing in the Contract will limit or exclude Rotork's liability to the Customer for death or personal injury, for gross negligence or wilful default (by Rotork or anyone who Rotork is legally responsible for) or to the extent such limitation or exclusion is not permitted by law. To the extent any part of the Contract has such effect, the Parties agree to replace such part of the Contract with provisions modified to the extent necessary to ensure such exclusion or limitation is permissible by law, but no further.
- 8.7 If any Information provided by the Customer to Rotork is either incorrect, incomplete or misleading and Rotork uses such Information, the Customer will:
- (a) waive any claims it has against Rotork for any losses the Customer incurs as a result of Rotork not performing its obligations correctly due, directly or indirectly, to the incorrect, incomplete or misleading information; and
- (b) indemnify Rotork in full against all losses, costs or liabilities Rotork incurs in connection with a Third Party claim Rotork receives, to the extent that Rotork would not have suffered such losses, expenses, costs or liabilities if the Information provided by the Customer had not been incorrect, incomplete or misleading.
- 8.8 The Customer will indemnify Rotork for all losses, costs or liabilities Rotork incurs in connection with any claim that Rotork receives from any affiliate of the Customer in connection with the Contract.

9. Confidentiality

- 9.1 Subject to clause 9.2 to 9.3, each Party will hold in confidence any Information which it acquires directly or indirectly from the other Party and will protect such Information with a reasonable degree of care and at least the same degree of care used to protect its own Information and not use such Information other than for the purposes of performing or exercising its rights under the Contract it was provided under.
- 9.2 The provisions of clause 9.1 do not apply to Information which is:
- (a) already in the public domain;
- (b) subject to an obligation to disclose under law, or is required to be disclosed by any court of competent jurisdiction or competent regulatory authority, by notice or otherwise; or

 - the other Party suffers an Insolvency Event; or
 - a Force Majeure Event stops Rotork performing its obligations under the Contract for three consecutive months.
- 10.2 To the extent Products are delayed, the Customer may send Rotork a written notice requiring Rotork to remedy the delay in delivery within a reasonable period of time. If Rotork does not remedy the delay within such a period of time, the Customer may terminate the Contract in respect of the delayed Products, and if the Customer is not able to use any other Products delivered or to be delivered under the Contract as a result of not receiving the delayed Products, the Customer may also terminate the Contract in respect of those related Products. To the extent any Products terminated under this clause 10.2 have been delivered by Rotork and/or paid for by the Customer, then within 30 days:
- the Customer will promptly return such Products to Rotork on FCA basis at the Delivery Location; and
 - Rotork will refund the price of those Products to the Customer.
- 10.3 Rotork may terminate the Contract immediately on written notice to the Customer if the Customer is in breach of any obligation to make payment under the Contract or any other contract with Rotork and such a breach continues for a period of ten days from the due date.
- 10.4 Without prejudice to any other rights and remedies which may be available to it, Rotork may terminate or suspend this Contract for any reason at its sole discretion at any time.
- 10.5 Without limiting its other rights and remedies, Rotork may suspend performance under the Contract or any other contract between the Customer and Rotork if:
- the Customer becomes subject to an Insolvency Event;
 - the Customer fails to make a payment under the Contract by the due date or any other contract with Rotork; or
 - Rotork reasonably believes the events listed in (a) and (b) of this clause 10.5 are about to occur.
- If Rotork has suspended performance and the circumstances entitling Rotork to suspend performance subsequently cease (and Rotork has not elected to terminate the Contract in accordance with its other rights and remedies), Rotork will resume performance but any time limits for such performance will be extended by the duration of the suspension.
- 10.6 Termination of the Contract, however arising, will not affect any of the Parties' rights, remedies, obligations and liabilities that have accrued as at termination.
- 10.7 The Customer's right to terminate the Contract as set out in this clause 10 represents its only rights to terminate the Contract.

11. Intellectual Property Rights

- 11.2 The Customer will have a non-exclusive, irrevocable, perpetual, worldwide, royalty-free licence to use any IPR in any written documentation provided to the Customer by Rotork as a deliverable in accordance with the Contract, solely for the purpose of installing, commissioning, operating and maintaining the Products.
- 11.3 Rotork will have a non-exclusive, irrevocable, perpetual, worldwide, royalty-free licence to use any Product configuration and performance data obtained during the provision of Services to help improve its products and services generally.

- 11.5 The indemnity contained in clause 11.4 will not apply for claims for infringement in respect of:
- any modification to the Products which is carried out by or on behalf of the Customer, if such modification is not authorised by Rotork in writing;
 - any Products manufactured to the specific instructions of the Customer;
 - losses resulting from the Customer failing to observe its obligations under any Contract; and/or
 - losses that the Customer could have mitigated but did not.

The Parties will co-operate with each other in securing any such licenses or authorisations as may be required and each will provide such statements, certificates and assurances regarding transfer, use, disposition, end-use, source of supply, nationalities and re-export of the Products as may be required in connection with each Party's application for any required license or governmental authorisation.

- 13.3 The rights of each Party under the Contract may be exercised as often as needed, are cumulative and apply (except where expressly stated in the Contract) in addition to its rights under law and may be waived only in writing and specifically. Not exercising or a delay in exercising any right is not a waiver of that right.
- 13.4 Clauses 7, 8, 9, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16 and 17 (and any other provision which expressly or impliedly survives termination or expiration of the contract) will survive the expiration or termination of the Contract and will continue in full force and effect after expiration or termination.

- 17.3 There will be one arbitrator, selected and appointed by the Parties, except where:
- (a) the Dispute involves an amount in excess of 1,000,000 GBP or equivalent (exclusive of costs and fees); or
 - (b) the Parties are unable within 30 days to agree the identity of an arbitrator,
- in which cases three arbitrators will be appointed. In such instance, each Party will select one arbitrator within 30 days after giving or receiving the demand for arbitration (or failing to agree the identity of an arbitrator under subclause (b) above), and the two arbitrators so selected will jointly select the third arbitrator. If the two arbitrators fail to select the third arbitrator within 30 days, then the ICC will make the relevant appointment.
